Subject: Duke Energy

Do you guys pay attention to how much PROFIT Duke Energy made last year????!!! Are you kidding me with considering giving them a rate hike? I say once they stop making all that profit then consider a rate hike. I can find no excuse for approving this increase and if I had a choice to use anything other than Duke, believe me, I would!

I just never send emails or write letters like this but as you can tell I'm very angry about the big businesses making billions of dollars and still wanting more. Let them lower their big salaries and live like the rest of us for a while. RECTIVIT
